
SimplePay currency exchange information

2017.05.16.

We hereby inform our customers that the bank card payment Transaction on the website of <name of the merchant> is HUF basis, regardless that the currency of the owner of credit card is not HUF currency.

The currency that is shown on the website <currency> (e.g USD) is just indicative, because the payment is made on the currency selling rate of the issuer bank when the payment is debited.

The Forint amount of the payment debited on your bank account may be minimally different as a result of the change of the rate because of the conversions of the card companies or the issuer bank.
